

(Resolution 9-2013) AOA Construction Project Schedule

The Association will not schedule construction projects during the holiday period. This period begins on Thanksgiving and ends on New Years Day. This excludes emergencies, any construction required for safety issues, or any construction resulting from a complication that extends an active project into that time period. Examples of possible construction projects that this would apply to are: pool renovation, parking lot resurfacing, or painting of the buildings.